

Stamm Wolfstein und Hag Taure

Deutscher Pfadfinderbund

Description of the local group:

The Wolfstein group consists of three groups (groups for boy). The Bärenfels group consists of boys between the ages of 15 and 21 years. It meets in our home at the Gräselberg. There is also the Greifenstein group for boys between 12 and 15 years and the Löwenstein group for boys between 7 and 12 years. These two groups meet in Kloppenheim.

The Hag Taure consists of three groups (groups for girls). Two groups meet in Kloppenheim: one is for 15 to 18 years olds and one is for 9 to 13 years olds. The third group is for 8 to 11 years olds and meets at the Gräselberg.

Stamm and Hag are led by a council made up of members of the groups for boy and the groups for girls.

Who we are:

Stamm Wolfstein and Hag Taure are groups of the German Scouting Union (DPB).

The DPB wants

- to teach boys and girls to go around the world with open eyes and help wherever their help is needed.
- to show them that what is essential in people's coexistence is the emphasis on what is mutual and respect for free human personality.
- to educate them to think independently, impartially and critically and thus to become responsible people.

Stamm Wolfstein and Hag Taure are committed to these goals.

What we do:

Throughout the group activities, we prepare ourselves for trips and camps. We also learn scouting techniques or play games.

We call the group activities "Home Evenings" because they take place at the "Home". This is our "Association Place".

We go on a lot of trips; this involves wandering with backpack and guitars through Germany and other countries.

Of course we also organise tent camps. Furthermore, we meet with other pathfinders or play off-road games with other groups.

How can I participate:

Participating is very easy. All of our groups are still accepting youngsters. We accept boys and girls starting from the age of seven years. Simply drop by at a Home Evening. If you like it, you can get your neckerchief after a free probationary period of around six months.

Then you are a member of Stamm Wolfstein or Hag Taure in the German Scouting Union.
